MID-DAY THURSDAY 13th JULY

We are asked to pray especially this week for Georgie and her husband Nick who has been told he has prostate cancer. We pray that they would both know God's peace in their hearts and that the doctors will be given wisdom and skill in their treatment.

Sometimes it's hard to know how to pray, but God already knows what we want to say and He always listens, even if we can't find actual words.

Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

Romans 8:26

Leaflets now available on the coffee table, or speak to Gill or Sheila Wood.

CHURCH LUNCH

And what a lunch! it certainly took a leaf out of The Bayleaf's book - gorgeous. Such a lovely collection of different dishes, and then strawberries and cream which put me in the mood for this coming week of tennis on TV.

Lord God, you still hear our cry,
 Thank you for this food supply;
 This table full of rich delight
 To eyes that love a feasty sight.
 Accept our praise for every bite,
 For taste, with smell and appetite.

Chris Ward

Thank you to everyone who provided such lovely food and fellowship. It was a lovely friendly occasion.

Norma

A compliment is verbal sunshine!
